GRAMODAYA

ग्रामोदय

The villages in India are home to .83 billion people comprising 70% of India's population. This reveals the vast human capital of India. The importance of this resource is further strengthened by the fact that India is an agrarian economy. India's villages also house exceptional resources in terms of tangible and intangible property such as traditional knowledge, handicrafts, handlooms, etc.

Rural India did not receive its due attention in the years following independence. However, the beginning of this millennium has seen substantial change on this front. In the past few years, the Government has laid special emphasis on the development of the rural areas alongside urban development and industrial growth. The inclusion of villages in the developmental process will have multi-fold impact such as inclusive development, increase in the farmer's welfare and income, support to secondary industries, etc. The governmental efforts are bearing results but there exists mismatch between the schemes and their intended outreach. The project Gramoday bears in mind this fundamental concern which needs immediate attention to bridge the gap between governmental schemes and the target audience. Agam as an organisation is involved primarily in facilitating an increase in the outreach of governmental schemes to the marginalised. The project Gramoday is one of the tools to foster this end. Gramoday project uses a bottom-up approach, whereby the children are the agents of change. We plan to establish Rural Knowledge Centres (Gramin Shiksha Kendra) for the purpose of educating the children. Each Centre would be assisted by a Rural Friend (Gram Mitra) who shall be the first point of contact. The Gram Mitra shall not only educate the students enrolled with the Centre but will also be involved in administrative tasks such as assessing the needs of Kendras, identifying the needs of the students, organising events (where and if necessary) for the parents of the students, etc. One of the crucial elements of the Gramoday project is technological intervention in the field of good governance. This will be used foremostly in maintaining transparency in the structure and functioning of the Gramoday project followed by imparting digital literacy to the students and other interested stakeholders.

Foreword

Governance in Ramayana

Rama and Ramayana occupy an important space in the hearts of millions of Indian. Ramarajya, as described in Ramayana, has been a part of Indian thinking for centuries. Practically, Ramarajya can be described as a means of putting the idea of Good Governance at the centre of all governmental activity. It had all the characteristics of Democracy.

Recently the terms "Governance" and "Good Governance" are being increasingly used in development literature. Bad Governance is being increasingly regarded as one of the root causes of all evil within our societies. Major donors and international financial institutions are increasingly basing their aid and loans on the condition that reforms ensuring "Good Governance" are undertaken.

The concept of "Governance" is not new. It is as old as human civilization. Simply put "Governance" means: the process of decision-making and the process by which decisions are implemented (or not implemented). Governance can be used in several contexts such as Corporate Governance, International Governance, National Governance and Local Governance.

Since Governance is the process of decision making and the process by which decisions are implemented, an analysis of governance focuses on the formal and informal actors involved in decision-making and implementing the decisions made and the formal and informal structures that have been set in place to arrive at and implement the decision.

AGAM has been started to address these issues and bring a positive change in the society by accepting all these challenges. AGAM envisioned to be the hallmark of Good Governance in India.

About AGAM: An Initiative for Good Governance

AGAM is a non-governmental organization registered under the Society Registration Act, 1860, purely run and managed by volunteers. The prime objective of AGAM is to raise the level of governance in the area of but not limited to Education, Health, Environmental Protection, Rural Development, Law and Justice etc.

AGAM, as a centre to promote Good Governance, finds its genesis in the premise that the government needs the support of the civil society to effectively implement developmental schemes and achieve the goals of Good Governance holistically.

Vision

The vision of AGAM is to be the hallmark of Good Governance in India.

Mission

The mission of AGAM are as follows-:

- To reach out to the last individual of civil society and include the same in reaping from the fruits of development.
- To make people aware of their citizenry rights and encourage them to use those rights when and wherever required.
- To be the support system of government in creating a multiplier effect in the outreach of its activities;
- To undertake independent and complementary action voluntarily or on demand to achieve inclusive development;
- To capacitate the needy through education and healthcare with the aim of building a motivated, strong, confident, and independent populace; and
- To enable the interface between various components to foster goals of nation building by promoting Good Governance nationally.

Letter from the President

It is a pleasure for me to share with you AGAM's services and accomplishments since 2014 till now.

AGAM works with a mission to help every child to have a secure education, and to eliminate the causes of relinquishment and abandonment through advocacy, education and dissemination of resources.

After 7 years of a rollercoaster ride, our all the board members determined to overcome whatever challenges came their way.

With an aim to providing a better future to children, we initiated several programs with our partner institutions in India. We are building partnerships with several institutions and like-minded organizations in India to expand our reach, education and advocacy for serving the needs.

Putting puzzles together is something many people enjoy. There is real satisfaction in knowing what something has the potential to be and making it a reality. Many people start a puzzle by making a frame with all the smooth edges first, and then work their way to make it whole. The process of putting a puzzle together is a good analogy for what we do at NGOs.

Our unique combination of services provides the framework needed to help children and adults with the most complex disabilities rebuild their lives. The critical pieces that help produce successful outcomes come from our dedicated staff, committed volunteers and generous supporters.

Throughout this annual report and examples of the many different types of challenges (puzzles) those we serve, face and how, together, we helped them pick up the pieces and shape new lives for themselves.

May god bless our efforts to work together for a better future for all children.

Best Wishes,
Dr. JL Mishra
President

Small Efforts with Big Impact – Our Hallmark Project:

The villages in India are home to 830 million people, comprising 70% of India's population. This reveals the vast human capital of India residing in villages. The importance of this resource is further strengthened by the fact that India is an agrarian economy. India's villages also house exceptional resources in terms of tangible and intangible property such as traditional knowledge, handicrafts, handlooms etc.

Rural India didn't receive its due attention in the years following independence. However, the beginning of this millennium has seen substantial change on this front. In the past few years, the government has laid special emphasis on the development of the rural areas alongside urban development and industrial growth. The inclusion of villages in the development process will have multiword impact such as inclusive development, increase in farmer's welfare and income, support to secondary industries etc. The governmental efforts are bearing results but there exists a mismatch between the schemes and their intended outreach. The project Gramodaya bears in mind this fundamental concern which needs immediate attention to bridge the gap between governmental schemes and the target audience. AGAM as an organisation is involved primarily in facilitating an increase in the outreach of government schemes to the marginalised.

Hallmark Project – Gramodaya

The project Gramodaya is one of the tools to foster this end. The Gramodaya project uses a bottom-up approach, whereby the children are the agents of change. We have established Gram Shiksha and Suchana Kendra (GSSK) for the purpose of educating the children. The GSSKs serves as a centre of transformation assisting in providing quality education in subjects such as English, Mathematics, and Computer Science through technological intervention to necessary children.

Each such Kendra is being assisted by a Gram Mitra who is the first person of contact. The Gram Mitra not only educate the students enrolled with the centre but also involved in administrative tasks such as assessing the needs of the Kendra, identifying the needs of students, celebrating special days related to Environment, Governance, Independence Day etc., organising events (where and if necessary) for the parents of the students etc.

One of the crucial elements of the Gramodaya project is technological intervention in the field of Good Governance. This is being used foremostly in maintaining transparency in the structure and functioning of the Gramodaya project followed by imparting digital literacy to the students and other interested stakeholders at our Computer Centre.

Hallmark Project – Gramodaya

Further, we organise awareness camps on a regular basis not only to make them aware of their citizenry rights but also to inform them about social welfare schemes sponsored by the State and Central Government.

We also organise health camps in villages on a regular basis with an aim not just to provide health services but to create an environment where the whole community gets sensitized about health issues.

A few other initiatives are women empowerment program stressing upon training on operating sewing machines, embroidery, arts, and designing skills as well as tailoring that can assist in their livelihood.

Currently, Gramodaya project is being implemented in three villages namely Babhniyawan, Darjipurwan, in Bahraich district and Keshwapur Pajawa in Shravasti district of Uttar Pradesh and we are persistently looking to serve other villages across India under the project.

List of Gram Shiksha and Suchana Kendra (GSSK)

1.) Babhniyawan, Bahraich

2.) Darjipurwan, Bahraich

3.) Keshwapur Pajawa, Shravasti

Gram Shiksha and Suchana Kendra (GSSKs) -

1.) Babhniyawan, Bahraich

It is situated 40 kms away from Bahraich, which is both district and sub district headquarters of Babhniyawan village. The transport connectivity up to the village is not good. The government bus facility is available only up to Payagpur which is about 16 km away from the village. From there people have to have their own vehicle to reach the village. The other way one has to reach Bilaruwa More through local tempo/taxi and from there the village is about 3 kms away that has to be covered by bicycle/own vehicles/on foot.

According to the 2011 census of India, Babhniyawan's population is 3450 out of which 1893 people are illiterate which amounts for 54% - the darkest part of the village. Most of the villagers are farmers and totally dependent on their farm products for daily livelihoods.

In the village there is a school facility available only up to class 8 (that too only one primary govt. school till class 5 and one govt. high school till class 8). If one wants to study beyond, he/she has to travel at least 15 kms (to and fro) to go to secondary school.

Gram Shiksha and Suchana Kendra (GSSKs) –

2.) Darjipurwan, Bahraich

Darjipurwan, is a village about one and a half kms from Babhniyawar. The conditions are almost similar. The literacy is below the national average. The majority of the population are Muslims and are dependent on agriculture. A major percentage of male population migrate to Saudi Arabia for livelihood as labourer, helper etc. The girls are married at an early age as conventionally they are considered to do household works only and education is not considered essential for them. In the village rarely any boy of age more than 15 has continued his studies mostly because they help their family by earning some money by doing some job in some near about city. In the village there is only one primary government school and one Urdu School. Some of the little faces who attend Urdu school don't know how to write their names in hindi/english, they lag behind others who goes to primary school in terms of modern education. The situation is worse for girls. Girls left study even at an early age mainly because of her marriage or traditional reason of not giving much importance to education for girls.

Gram Shiksha and Suchana Kendra (GSSKs) –

3.) Keshwapur Pajawa, Shravasti

Keshwapur Pajawa village is located in Ikauna Tehsil of Shravasti district in Uttar Pradesh, India. It is situated 33 km away from sub-district headquarter Ikauna and 25 away from district headquarter Bhinga. Keshwapur Pajawa village is also a gram panchayat. The total geographical area of the village is 450.66 hectares.

Keshwapur Pajawa has a total population of 2,501 people. There are about 425 houses in Keshwapur Pajawa village. Bahraich is the nearest town to Keshwapur Pajawa which is approximately 22 km away.

Distribution of Food and Ration for Migrant Workers

AGAM: An Initiative for Good Governance, has been continuously supporting the stranded migrant worker, disabled and homeless person in its limited capacity to sustain them during this lockdown. To quote one instance in Delhi AGAM through its member and volunteer has been able to provide food and ration to 10-12 people (All migrant workers from Bihar) since the announcement of nation-wide lockdown. Our volunteers are also assisting them to get financial aid from the Government of Bihar.

We at AGAM are in its limited capacity constantly striving to help people effected due to COVID-19 and increase awareness among them in terms of sanitation, hygiene and social distancing and also to deter potential wrongdoing of spreading rumours, hoarding of essential items and disobedience of public officer during the lockdown in our fight against COVID-19.

Online Fraud Case Through Bank Account

Recently we have shared an article in hindi about how to deal with online fraud, what to do, and how the money could be brought back into your bank account if an unauthenticated deduction happened.

It's a great pleasure for us to inform you all that we successfully brought back the amount of Rs.6,500/- which has been debited on 05/10/2020 from the bank account of Mr. Ajeet Kumar Roy. After the complaint has been made both to the nearest police station and to the Bank Manager, the same amount returned and credited within 4 days.

World Food Day

As part of our health sector initiative, on the occasion of world food day, our Food and Nutrition specialist Ms. Manya Tiwari has made A Balanced Diet chart that will help people to find out guidelines for a healthy diet.

NUTRITION

The energy and nutrients needed by your body to grow and stay healthy come from the air you breathe, the food you eat and the fluids you drink.

A BALANCED DIET

FRUIT AND VEGETABLES
A great source of fibre and a variety of vitamins and minerals. Generally low in fat.

RICE, BREAD, PASTA AND OTHER STARCHY FOODS
High in carbohydrates. Wholegrain varieties are a great source of fibre and protein.

MEAT, FISH, EGG AND BEANS
A great source of protein, iron and zinc. Choose lean cuts of meat to reduce fat intake.

MILK AND DAIRY FOODS
Can be high in fat. A great source of calcium and protein.

FATTY AND SUGARY FOODS
High in fat and sugar.

UNDERSTANDING NUTRITION
 All of the foods you eat are made up of the following nutrients.

Fats

Saturated and trans fats increase your risk of heart disease, diabetes and other health problems. However, not all fats are bad for you. The right fats can help lower cholesterol and fight fatigue.

Good Bad

Be careful! Many fat-free foods are high in calories and can result in weight gain.

Carbohydrates

Carbohydrates are your body's main source of energy. Complex carbs help protect against heart disease and diabetes, whereas simple carbs digest quickly and cause spikes in blood sugar levels.

Complex Simple

For a healthier diet, replace refined (white) bread, pasta and rice with wholegrain varieties.

Protein

Proteins are used by the body for growth and maintenance. Sources include:

Vitamins and Minerals

Vitamins and minerals help keep the body healthy. Sources include:

Vigilance Awareness Week

As per the directions of Central Vigilance Commission, PSUs, PSBs and all other organisations have observed Vigilance Awareness Week from 27th October to 2nd November 2020.

As part of our joint outreach programme during the Vigilance Awareness Week and to create awareness among people about the various aspects of vigilance, Our Senior Advisor, Shri Ashutosh Kumar Mishra, conducted a virtual session on “Tools of Preventive Vigilance” for the officers of Bank of Baroda on 27.10.2020.

“Preventive steps always scores above any punitive actions” ~ remarked Shri Mishra.

International Anti-Corruption Day

On the occasion of International Anti-Corruption Day, we at AGAM organised a webinar on “Whistleblowing in Private Sector: Protection and Way Forward” with a prime motive to strengthen the framework to protect the whistleblowers in India.

It was well moderated by Mr. Ashutosh Kr. Mishra, Advisor, AGAM and a great insight has been presented by our guest speaker Mr. Deepak Srivastava, Ex- National Manager, ICICI Lombard Fraud Control Unit and Associate Vice-President HR.

Mr. Srivastava shared his experiences working in ICICI and highlighted the need of a national representative body and some foolproof mechanism to protect whistle blowers in our country. Mr. Mishra asked some insightful questions to Mr. Srivastava and also presented his views on legal aspects of the issue.

FactShala Literacy Programme

AGAM in collaboration with CEGET-GCNI (Centre for excellence for Governance, Ethics and Transparency – Global Compact Network India), has organised a FactShala Literacy Programme.

The aim of the programme was to educate professionals and others about media literacy and empower them to consume information critically. This will further help in spreading the all-important message of recognizing and shifting through misinformation and fake news from the daily dose of information that we consume online, offline and through our friends, family and contacts.

The screenshot shows a Zoom meeting interface. On the left, a presentation slide titled "The Power of Information: Why good info matters" is displayed. The slide includes the logo for "fact शक्ति INDIA MEDIA LITERACY NETWORK" and a list of bullet points under the heading "GOOD INFORMATION LEADS TO GOOD DECISIONS":

- Help individuals to understand the challenges they confront
- Helps adapt an evolving environment
- Improving their health, lives
- Care for your family
- Vote with knowledge
- Control of your life
- Control of your body

On the right side of the meeting, a "Meeting details" panel shows 35 people in the call. The list of participants includes: Pramod Kumar (You), ajeet ray, Ankita Kumari, Arham Raza, Arushi Singhal, Arya Dev, and Ashok Kumar Jain. The Zoom control bar at the bottom shows icons for mute, video off, and chat.

BE A LOCAL CHAMPION PROGRAM

Be a Local Champion

We invite people to become a part of our Be a Local Champion program by assisting us to open a centre in their region. People become champion by not only winning gold medals or trophies but also by winning the heart of all the people of the society by their small works of kindness and by helping the poor and needy people of the society. You can also be the one just by taking the initial step towards a greater change. As a Local Champion a mutual assistance would be provided by AGAM including the basic infrastructure. Further, AGAM volunteers would be assisting the centre in various other ways on a regular basis. AGAM recognises the Local Champions as the Agents of Change and felicitate them at different occasions and programs at national level.

Be a part of change, Be a Local Champion.

DONATE

We are so proud of our recent work and achievements. We would like to thank every supporter and well-wishers for being a part of our community.

However, our mission to is a 24/7 undertaking! We need further and continued help to continue our work.

Past campaigns have enabled us to increase our outreach, though as a non-profit organization, we completely rely on community support. None of our efforts would have been possible without the help of donors, volunteers, and supportive community members like you.

Would you please consider making a donation to help us?

Any and all support is greatly appreciated. We're just excited to get to work! Thank you for being a part of our community and our story.

Please go through the link <http://www.agamindia.org/page/donate-us> to support us and do your part required to give something back to the society!!!!
